

Pennsylvania grows more mushrooms than any other state. Each year the state's farmers grow 443 BILLION tons! And did you know that Pennsylvania is known as the Snack Food Capital of the World? The state houses major producers of pretzels, potato chips, candies and chocolate.

